Dear Family,

Would anyone mind flying directly (Net Jets) on Xmas day from Utah to Tobago? We would get one more day of skiing and have one less flight. I am also concerned about the hassle factor at JFK on the way to Tobago and would like to take a good chunk of the worry and concern out of the equation.

We would not adjust the return flight schedule.

If you approve then we will need to cancel;

1. One night at University Club on Dec.24th
2. Limo from Teterboro on Dec.24th
3. Cancel the flight down for all 6 passengers and make sure that we still retain the return flight seats.

Please provide your recommendation when possible.

Love,

Dad
