Dear Abe,

I think that my Partner at Dalton, Mr.Steve Persky, would be able to discuss Relax the Back as I suspect that it relates to Dalton's Fixed Income business.

Warm Regards,

jamie

Hi Jamie & Kyle,

I hope you are both having a great week.

My colleague and I have been investigating the production of a class I medical device and I thought I would reach out to see if either of you have any connections to possible manufacturers. I know you recently acquired Relax The Back and the device we are looking to create would be within the scope of whoever manufactures those products.

If you know of any leads let me know, otherwise I hope to see you both soon for a hike!

Have a great week

WR,
