Jamie & Laura,

I hope that you are having an amazing trip. Your adventures look nothing short of amazing as shown by Instagram.

Please allow me to express my sincere gratitude for all of the tickets to CTG & The Hollywood Bowl from the past few months. It has been an absolute joy to experience the arts. As Benno would tell you I have a lot of "catching up to do" as I didn't grow up with the gay theater kid card.

We saw Amelie, Zoot Suit, Into The Woods, Jersey Boys, and most recently this evening the Harry Potter orchestra.

Amelie was a cute play, it was one of the only movies that I had seen but Benno had not. The adaptation to theater worked well and it had a cute message.

Zoot Suit was a very relevant play that echoed current societal issues regarding minorities and race, the message was strong.

Into The Woods was much better on the stage as the movie wasn't my favorite. The play was amazing and Benno and I had a great time.

Benno couldn't attend Jersey Boys because of one of his ABC performances, so I took my girlfriend Melissa. Neither of us had seen the show before and we enjoyed it very much.

Finally, Harry Potter was incredible this evening. Benno now wants "an orchestra in our living room". Seeing the movie with the love orchestra added an incredible level of emotion and depth to the movie.

Hope you are both well and am very excited for this weekend upcoming in Napa.

Thank you both for all that you do, you are both incredible and have an amazing son.

Love,

Abe
