Dear Family,

Now that I am ordained, should we start a new religion, the Temple of Celebration?

Love,

j

Getordained Welcome Banner

Greetings James B Rosenwald III,

Wow! It's been three whole months since you became ordained! Time flies when you're out there making a positive impact in the universe, huh? At this 90-day milestone, we just wanted to check-in and make sure that you have all the resources you need to become your best "you".

Although weddings are always exciting to be a part of, becoming ordained opens more doors than just being a wedding officiant. In fact, your ordination gives you the tools to preside over all sorts of ceremonies: from baptisms, to funerals, to house blessings, to many other types of spiritual events. Some ministers even go on to start their own churches after getting ordained through the ULC!

If you're looking to expand your horizons and break into exciting new areas, we recommend considering our popular all-inclusive package, the Church Starter Kit. Complete with pretty much everything you'll need to launch your own ministry, this is an investment that will continue to pay dividends years down the line.

Our goal has always been to assist our ministers as they explore their own unique spiritual paths. That's why we've curated one of the web's most comprehensive compendiums for ministerial information. In the ULC training center guides, you'll learn how to baptise a child, how to solemnize a funeral, and everything in between (which is an awful lot). Please check out the free guides below to start unlocking your potential.

In joining the ULC, you are also joining a global community of dynamic individuals motivated to do good in the world. We're here to help you maximize your abilities and provide guidance along the way. If you've got a lingering question that needs answering, just get in touch!

Peace,

Sister Jeanne
