Dear Abe,

CONGRATULATIONS!!!! UCI IS CERTAINLY A VERY SOLID BACK UP TO USC AND/OR UCLA!!!

Happy to send you reminders of the hikes on the days we are in town as we love having you and Twyla join whenever possible.

Huge Hugs,

jamie

Subject: Sunday Hikes, School Transfer

Laura & Jamie,

Benno, Twyla and I have really enjoyed coming to PV for the morning Sunday hikes over the past few weeks. I want us to continue to make it a priority to come whenever you are in town and hosting it. It is a great motivator for us to get up early on Sunday, great exercise, and good family time. The one drawback is I do think we will have to give Twyla a significant trim so she doesn't get so messy. So please, let us know whenever you are going on the hike in the future so we can join when we can.

Also, I have already told Benno and Jossi this news - but I sometimes fear that my hyper-planning of the future stresses Benno out, so I don't know if he shared, but I found out last week that because of my GPA at PCC I am eligible for guaranteed transfer to University of California Irvine. I still plan on USC being my #1 choice, but UCI isn't a bad guaranteed backup and they still have programs similar to what are available at USC.

Looking forward to seeing you both in a few weeks and having another amazing Napa trip!

Love,

Abe

Warmest regards,
