Lauren,

Please cancel Hotel Telluride and book us into Element 52 which is an Auberge Resort in the town.

Thank you very much,

jamie

Just spoke with my friend in Telluride and she told me to recommend Element 52 for you and Jamie. It's an Auberge resort that is in town (Same elevation as Hotel Telluride). She said Hotel Telluride has gone downhill the past few years and her exact words were "Stains on the carpet".

Obviously I am sure it would still be fine, I just want you and Jamie to have good accommodations in Telluride, I don't want it to be a Carneros like experience for you both!!
