Stephanie will send over the most recent version. We don't have a laminator but happy for you to do it and will take the binder home.

Sounds great!

It was recommended that we laminate the contents of the binder.

I have a laminator and can easily laminate your speech as well as our vows.

Please let me know if the most recently circulated copy is accurate and if you have any printing preferences (type font, size, etc).

Warmest regards,

Abe & Benno,

I have a lovely Net Jets Three Ring Binder which is made of Aluminum. I have put the speech inside and will use it as my “prop.”

If you use a standard 3 hole punch you can also put your Vows to each other inside and I can hand it to you during this portion of the ceremony?

Love,

Dad
