Subject: Hawaii Alternatives

Hi family,

Benno and I did some research last night on alternative locations to Hawaii and this is what we found. I spoke with the international team at Netjets and they advised the only way to get Milo a passport now would be with a notarized affidavit of birth, international travel documentation, and a letter from a hospital or doctor constituting a life or death emergency. He could then get a passport issued within 24 hours but this would require some finagling. I'm not sure that through normal channels that he will even have his passport by December for Tahiti because of the enormous backlogs, so that is something to consider - but hopefully Hawaii will be open by then if we need to find an alternate destination - I mean who even knows if Tahiti is going to be open by then at this point.

These are some interesting domestic locations. If anyone else has ideas please share as well. In addition to looking at locations that would work well with Jamie's idea of flying to Long Island to spend a few days with Mimi before heading south, we prioritized pet friendliness, weather, and beaches. Some of the more exotic beach locations do not allow pets.
