We will check on flight date and hours flown to Westchester International from Lyford Key Bahamas for a noon departure. If it is available we will ask them what catering they would like for the flight.

Hey Abe...I hope you are well and that you are not frozen solid! We considered returning the Net Jet on February 12th from Nassau (Lyford Cay) to the HPN. It would be three adults and 1 2.5-year-old. Let us know if you think the date is doable. Ty

Sounds great! You've been on my list to email as well - but let's be honest, this time of year is the hardest to plan anything with anyone, & everyone is going a little Holiday coo-coo.

Talk soon!

Hi Abe. Sorry for my delayed email. I hope you are well. I'm the guy who "won" the very generous plane that you donated to the PiFS charity. I have no exact plans yet but will sit down with my wife and figure some dates out. Although briefly, my wife and I enjoyed meeting you that evening and look forward to seeing you again. I'll be in touch when we get some dates together. Thanks again
